

It's Baseball time once again.

PALL Registration is now open for the 2012 season.

It's that time again. Please take some time out of your busy schedule and sign-up for the upcoming 2012 Little League season. To make sure to avoid late fees make sure to sign up within the next month.

New Little League International rules allow 4 year old participants in T-Ball, so don't miss the chance to get the little ones out of the house this spring.

Thanks for being a part of the PALL family. I for one, appreciate the opportunity to be involved with such a great group of parents and kids. You have made my short time here as league president very enjoyable.

Sincerely,

David Harris
